Embargo Bill Emasculated

U.S. REPUBLICANS FOIL MEASURE

WASHINGTON, June 30 (Reuter)—After rejecting the proposal to abolish all neutrality laws, the House of Representatives to-day upset the administration's Neutrality Bill plans by voting 159-152 to include the "compromise" arms embargo in the Bill.

The "compromise" proposal, introduced by the Republican Representative Vorys, would prevent the shipment of arms and ammunition to belligerents, but would exclude, as Mr. Vorys put it, "implements of war—whatever that means."

Representative Hamilton Fish, Republican, declared that the proposals would mean the specific exemption from the embargo of everything except lethal weapons, and mentioned oil, aircraft and lorries as exceptions.

The House postponed its final vote on the Vorys compromise resolution until Friday.

LONDON, June 30 (Reuter)—The fourth fire in four days occurred in London to-day when a timber merchant's workshop was badly damaged. All the workmen escaped and were not injured.

The Under-Secretary for the Home Office stated in the House of Commons that the fullest investigation was being made in connection with the recent big fires in London.

It will be recalled that the third big fire in three days occurred in Upper Thames Street where a warehouse was gutted.

There were no casualties.

Arms Profits To Be Taxed

NEW LEVY FOLLOWS WARTIME MEASURE

LONDON, June 30.—A White Paper was issued here yesterday on the Arms Profits Tax, a measure which follows closely the Excess Profits Duty which was introduced as a war measure in 1915 and remained in force until 1921. The duration of the present duty is announced as three years.

The new levy amounts to 60 per cent of all profits (in excess of £200,000 annually) deriving from sales of armaments. It differs in several respects from the wartime duty which extended to all business enterprises, regardless of their nature, making higher profits than in the pre-war period.

Excess profits within the meaning of the act represent the proportion attributable to arms supplies of the supplies by which profits made exceed standard profits, which are based on individual pre-duty averages for any consecutive twelve months ending June, 1938.

Allowances is made for increased capital of 8 per cent in the case of companies and 10 per cent in the case of an individual or partnership, and an amount equal to 6 per cent for reduction of capital.

CHUNGKING, June 30 (Central)—A Japanese radio broadcast from Tokyo alleging that Gen. Li Han-yun, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, has been relieved of his post, was categorically denied by a spokesman of the National Military Council in an interview yesterday.

After paying a high tribute to Gen. Li's meritorious services to Kwangtung since his assumption of the governorship, the spokesman stated that the Japanese broadcast is a clumsy piece of propaganda which does not deserve any attention at all.

WHERE AND WHEN HE SPEAKS

HITLER HAS TO BE CAREFUL

BERLIN, June 30 (Reuter)—It is learned that Herr Hitler is, in all probability, not going to Bremen to-morrow for the warship launching at which he was expected to speak.

It is believed that the German Fuehrer is anxious to get as much rest as possible before the strenuous time anticipated in the autumn and is therefore avoiding any engagements that are not strictly necessary.

Herr Hitler, who realizes that his speeches are at present so important to the world that he must be extremely careful where and when he makes them.

It would be difficult for him to speak on a naval occasion without mentioning the British naval memorandum, in which connection he is said to be unwilling to anticipate Germany's formal reply.

NO OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION

QUESTIONS IN COMM SWATOW, TIENTSIN AND HAULING DOWN OF B

B. And S. Wharf Not Yet Occupied, Says Mr. Butler

LONDON, June 30 (Reuter)—In the House of Commons to-day, Mr. Noel Baker asked Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, for a statement regarding the action by the Japanese authorities in Swatow in preventing the vessels Seistan and Kwangtung from entering the port, occupying of Butterfield and Swire's wharf and hauling down the British flag, and also concerning the declaration of the Japanese Commander in Tientsin that the blockade of the British Concession would be intensified.

Mr. Butler replied that the Seistan and the Kwangtung did not call at Swatow on the advice of the local British naval authorities. Obstructions had been placed in the neighbourhood of Butterfield and Swire's wharf but it was not yet occupied.

Reports of Lord Halifax, Foreign Secretary, did not confirm the account of the hauling down of the British flag or the statement attributed to the Japanese Commander in Tientsin.

HAD SEEN REPORTS

In a further reply, Mr. Butler said that he had seen press reports that booms had been put across Foochow and Wenchow and statements by the Japanese authorities in Tientsin that the Concession would be completely closed from Saturday but Lord Halifax had no official confirmation, and he (Mr. Butler) had nothing to add to the Prime Minister's statement on the subject of Tientsin.

Mr. Arthur Henderson asked if it was not understood that while negotiations were proceeding there would be some relaxation of the blockade rather than intensification.

The Foreign Under-Secretary replied in the affirmative but repeated that the Foreign Office had no official confirmation of the statement attributed to the Japanese military authorities.

"TIMES" ON LORD HALIFAX'S SPEECH DIPLOMACY BY WAR IS BY THE BETTER CREED OR BY NEGOTIATION—FULL PR

LONDON, June 30 (BWS)—The Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, received a copy of the "Times" edition of his speech last night.

"The Times" says, "On one side stands the old idea of the new idea of international co-operation. Diplomacy by the better creed of diplomacy by negotiation. Selfish nations the idea of a European brotherhood of free states place in the forefront of those who believe in freedom of justice for all and in settlement of disputes by negotiation."

The "Daily Telegraph" says, "Lord Halifax's speech last night will be read; as it must have been listened to in this country on the broadcast programme, not only with approval, but with pride. No utterance more dignified, more resolute and more free from ambiguity could have come from the lips of the British Foreign Minister. The occasion was obviously a critical one and all the world was waiting to hear what Lord Halifax would say. It is high praise, therefore, to declare that the speech was entirely worthy of the occasion and of the nation to whose strongest convictions and resolve it gave expression."

"Those who pretend to believe that the British nation is not in earnest will have to revise their calculations. Lord Halifax has called the nation's flag to the mast. The record of Germany in word, not less than in deed, makes it impossible to trust either her assurances or her intentions, or to contemplate without dismay the prospect of being at her mercy."

"Nor is any hope of escape to be found in concession and, not the least satisfying note in the Foreign Secretary's speech is the abrogation of any attempt to buy off the present menace by further surrender."

"This country has entered into a solemn obligation to go to Poland's assistance if her vital rights are assailed and it should be clear to all, after Lord Halifax's words, that that obligation of ours will be unhesitatingly and fully observed."

"The mind of this nation is made up and it is an undivided mind."

BASEBALL

TWO GAMES THIS WEEK: CHINESE-RECREIO CLASH: MILITARY TEAMS MAKE HISTORY

BY R. O. Y.

The baseball programme for this week-end will consist of only two games, as the Mindanao-Hongkong Baseball Club clash has been postponed owing to the impending departure of the battle-wagon for Canton this morning.

At 2.30 this afternoon, the Chinese Baseballers tangle with Recreation in what is confidently expected to be a close and entertaining struggle.

The Chinese will field their strongest line-up and will not be taking any chances, as they still have hopes of carrying off championship honours which is only possible if they win all their remaining fixtures and if the Mindanao gang can take the Union Brewers in their return game.

Last season's champs, with Earl Wong in such fine hurling form, have a decided edge over the Portuguese boys but an upset is a distinct possibility, as the Rambling Recs have shown increasing improvement over their early season displays which met with little success during the early part of their campaign.

It is difficult to find a reason, but however badly the Recreation gang play against other squads, they invariably show their best form against the Chinese and have in past seasons proved to be the latter squad's most difficult obstacle; today's battle will probably be no exception.

TO-MORROW GAMES

Union Brewers, potential champions of 1939, will go into their match against South China, at 10 a.m. to-morrow, with the odds overwhelmingly in their favour, and should run their winning streak up to six in a row, without any difficulty.

As good as their record is, I have never been particularly impressed with their displays which seem to lack a certain quality which is perhaps best described as finesse. Their effectiveness though is undoubted.

The South China Gang, on past performances, will probably give their powerful opponents a good run, for the first few stanzas, but are very likely to find the pace too hot over the final stages.

Hurler Bill Chang has sufficient on the ball to cause the Brewers plenty of trouble, but must learn to pace himself before he can hope to turn in any victories.

I watched him closely in his last outing and noticed that he was pouring everything into every ball he pitched—I remarked to a well known local baseball writer that he would be fortunate to last 3 innings—and such turned out to be the case. A judicious change of pace would relieve his arm of enough strain to allow him to finish seven full innings without impairing his effectiveness.

FRIENDLY FRACAS

Baseball history was made in Hongkong during the week, when for the first time two British military teams, staged a friendly fracas with the horse-hide and hickory.

On Thursday afternoon, at the Murray Parade ground, the Royal Engineers, led by Welford, trimmed the Royal Scots by 32 tallies to 6, after garnering 22 in the first frame.

The standard of ball played was not high, but both squads showed evident enjoyment of America's national sport. Neither aggregation has had much experience or practice, but the Sappers, who

THE SERVICES

ROYAL NAVY

SURGEON REAR-ADMIRAL WARREN

The retirement is announced of Surgeon Rear-Admiral Leonard Warren, O.B.E., who for 3½ years up to January, last was in charge of the R.N. Hospital at Malta. He has been over 33 years in the Navy.

FLEET AIR ARM RATINGS

Regulations for the advancement of ratings in the new Air Artificer Branch, Air Fitter and Rigger Branch, and Air Mechanic Branch are contained in Fleet Orders published. As in most instances advancement will be made in vacancies from a roster, some time must elapse before it is practicable for the necessary particulars to be rendered and for the names of men due for advancement to be determined.

The Admiralty have decided, however, that when the necessary information is available the advancements to be made from the first rendering of recommendations shall be dated from May 24, 1939, provided the men were then eligible. This was the date on which administrative control was assumed by the Rear-Admiral, Naval Air Stations, Lee-on-Solent.

AIR MAINTENANCE DEPARTMENT

Commander (E) P. D. Oliver, who has been appointed to the Admiralty, will join the new Department of Air Maintenance and Repair.

GREENWICH HOSPITAL PENSION

Paymaster Captain C. B. Dawes, R.N., retired, has been awarded a Greenwich Hospital pension of £100 a year, in the vacancy created by the death of Paymaster Rear-Admiral C. A. F. Dunbar, O.B.E., retired, on May 8.

MORE NAVAL ENGINEER OFFICERS

In Fleet Orders the Admiralty announce the conditions under which a number of commissions will be granted to warrant engineers and warrant mechanics in order to assist in meeting the scarcity of engineer officers consequent on Fleet expansion. The scheme is similar to that for the promotion of warrant officers in the executive branch.

The last officers promoted from warrant grades to lieutenant (E), after long and zealous service, with seniority of March 6 last, were about 45 years of age, or nine years above the maximum age at which the new lieutenants (E) will be selected.

NAVAL APPOINTMENTS

The following appointments are made by the Admiralty—
Capt. C. G. B. Coltart, to Dolphin, in command, and as Capt. (S), 5th S/M Flotilla (July 11); G. C. P. Menzies, to President for service inside Admiralty (June 23); R. Shelley, to President for duty in N.I.D., Admiralty (June 3); as Naval Attache, Berlin (July 24).

Surgn. Cdr.—J. F. H. Gausson, M.B., appt. to President for Med. Dept. Admiralty, cancelled.

Lt.-Cdr.—M. A. G. Child, to Watchman, in command (June 15).

Sub-Lt.—R. H. Weedon, to Walpole; C. E. Chittorow, to Vanquisher; M. E. P. Ratcliffe, to Skate; J. D. Symonds, to Acasta; H. D. A. Weatherall, to Achates (June 21); J. M. Haly, to Antelope; T. P. P. U. Page, to Bittern (June 27); P. E. Nicolls, to Nigar; J. C. Coldwell, to Scimitar (June 17).

Wt. Engrs.—A. W. Munnis to Royal Oak; A. T. Gaskett, to Dauntless (June 19); C. W. Walker, to York (June 20); S. J. Cooper, to Sussex (undated).

THE ARMY

NEW GUARDS BATTALIONS

The War Office announces the following appointments—
Major J. C. Haydon, Irish Guards, has been selected for command of the 2nd Battalion, Irish Guards, with effect from May 18, 1939.

Major Sir Alexander Stanley, M.C., Welsh Guards, has been selected for command of the 2nd Battalion, Welsh Guards.

It was announced on April 26 that the King had been pleased to approve the reformation of the 2nd Battalion, Irish Guards, and the creation of a 2nd Battalion, Welsh Guards.

North-West Passage

King Vidor, whose last production was "The Citadel," will direct "North-West Passage." Robert Taylor, Spencer Tracy and Wallace Beery have starring roles, and much of the picture will be made on location.

The screen play, by Laurence Stallings, is based on the best-selling novel of frontier days by Kenneth Roberts. Hunt Stromberg is producer.

"North-West Passage" will be one of the principal productions on the M.G.M. schedule for the new season and will be filmed in technicolour. A year of preparatory research has been devoted to charting location sites and working out costume and historical detail.

"MY LUCKY STAR" AT MAJESTIC

At last the miraculous Sonja Henie appears in a picture as American as an ice cream cone! A dazzling modern girl, having a modern good time on a co-ed campus, wearing swank clothes, keeping swell dates—that's Sonja as you'll see her in "My Lucky Star," her new hit for 20th Century-Fox, which opens to-day at the Majestic Theatre.

A credit to Darryl F. Zanuck and to everyone who had a hand in its making, this is a picture that winks and glitters with fun and

"FOUR'S A CROWD" AT THE KING'S

Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Rosalind Russell and Patric Knowles share honours in the new Warner Bros. comedy, "Four's A Crowd," which opens to-day at the King's Theatre.

"Four's A Crowd" has only one objective, and that's to make the audience laugh. It is an up-to-the-minute comedy of the American scene. The story moves along at a breathless pace, with a rapid-fire succession of novel and humorous twists.

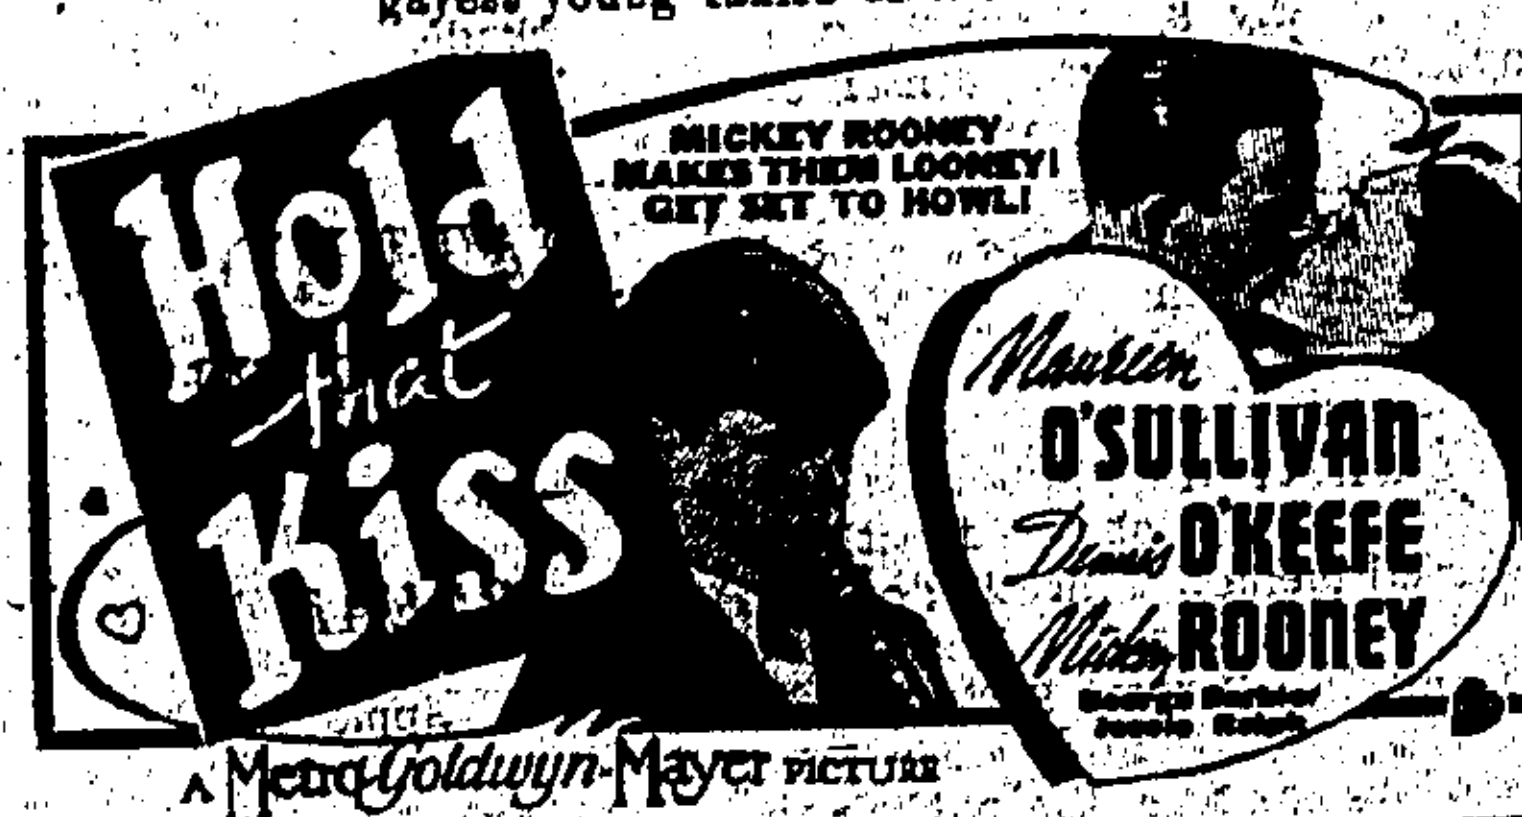

The four persons with whose fortunes it is mainly concerned are: A bright and fascinating newspaperman, played by Errol Flynn; a spoiled but charming heiress, played by Olivia de Havilland; a clever smoothie of a girl reporter, played by Rosalind Russell; and a rich playboy, played by Patric Knowles, who inherits a newspaper.

The splendid supporting cast includes Arthur Treacher, George Barbier, Louise Hovick, Billy Gilbert, Patricia Wilder and Paul Hurst.

"Jackson, old boy, congratulate me. Kindly slap me on the back."

"Certainly, my dear fellow, but may I ask you why? You haven't got engaged, I hope?"

"No, no. This is something really important. I did the fourth in one yesterday. A blow in a million! The swipes to end all swipes!"

"But I don't understand. You look as fit as the proverbial Stradivarius. Were there no celebrations?"

"Celebrations? There's been nothing like it since the Relief of Mafeking."

"Perhaps I'm dense, but I still don't understand. Forgive my bluntness, but where's the hangover?"

"Hangovers? Haven't you heard? There aren't any nowadays. You just drink Ginlets, or take a long glass of Rose's Lime Juice after the jamboree. It's just a question of therapeutic action as a doctor once described it to me."

"So Rose's prevents the morning-after?"

"Really acts truly. You know, old boy, you ought to keep a bottle of Rose's in your locker. Some day even you may do a hole in one!"

BANKRUPTCY COURT PETITIONS FOR RECEIVING ORDERS AGAINST TWO CHINESE FIRMS

Petitions for receiving orders against the Mercantile Manufacturing Company and the Leong Sun Kee firm were heard by the Chief Justice, Sir Adolph MacGregor, in the Bankruptcy Court yesterday.

In the first case, the petition was brought by the American Express Company, who were represented by Mr. J. T. Prior.

An interim receiving order had been made against the debtor firm, said Mr. Prior, and the Official Receiver had been appointed Interim Receiver.

The assets of the firm were not sufficient to pay a 15 per cent. dividend, as required in bankruptcy cases. The proprietor, Lau Hoo-tau, had absconded just before the petition was filed, and affidavits filed disclosed fraud on the part of Lau.

No Judgment Creditors
Mr. Prior said that there were no judgment creditors. The liabilities were between $200,000 and $300,000, while the assets were estimated at between $7,000 and $8,000, so that the dividend available for distribution would be very small after deduction of costs.

The assets were made up of $4,000 deposited with the Oversea-Chinese Banking Corporation, under the name of the Cheung Luen Manufacturing Co., on which evidence would be called to show that Lau was the sole proprietor, and the remainder in goods consigned through the Indo-China Steam Navigation Co., Ltd.

His Lordship granted the receiving order and also leave to amend the petition to include the Cheung Luen Manufacturing Co.

ALTERNATIVE CLAIM.

A similar petition was brought against the Leong Sun Kee firm by the Sincere Co. (Perfumery Manufacturers), Ltd.

Mr. M. M. Watson, for the petitioners, said the petition was somewhat unusual because there was an alternative claim for the winding up in bankruptcy of the estate of Leong Yat-tung, proprietor of the debtor firm, who died about 18 months ago.

Mr. C. D'Almada, for Kan Lee-sheung, the widow, said he had no objection to the petition, although he would like it to be adjourned for a month.

Mr. Watson said he opposed the application because it was not actually known who would be the real representative of deceased as his son had also put forward a claim that he was.

His Lordship said he would adjourn the petition until Wednesday next.

KING'S MESSAGE TO GOVERNOR

In response to the message of felicitation sent by H. E. the Governor to the King and Queen on the occasion of their journey to America, the following reply has now been received from His Majesty through the Secretary of State, London:

TWO POLICE OFFICERS FOR TRIAL

MONEY DEMAND AND EXTORTION CHARGES

Un Shu-ki, Police Interpreter, and Joseph Herbert Edward Edwards, Sub-Inspector of Police, both of Hongkong Police Station, were committed to stand their trial at the criminal sessions, the former on charges of extortion and demanding money with menaces, and the latter on a charge of demanding money with menaces, when lower court proceedings were concluded before Mr. E. Himsforth, at the Kowloon Court yesterday.

Un is accused of having received a sum of $110 from a foreman carpenter of the Kowloon Docks, Lau Hei-yuk, at the Hip On Club, Gillies Avenue, Hongkong, on April 23, and of having demanded from him $120.

Edwards is alleged to have been present at a conversation between the first defendant and Lau Hei-yuk, when the former is stated to have demanded from Lau wine money for the Inspector as a guarantee that no charge of uttering counterfeit coins aboard a motor-bus would be preferred against him.

Edwards, who is on bail of $100, is being represented by Mr. G. S. Hugh-Jones, and Un, who is on bail of $250, is being represented by Mr. C. D'Almada.

MARCUS SHOW SHOULD NOT BE MISSED

"Broadway Vanities" At The Queen's

Theatre-goers who have not yet seen the famous Marcus Show at the Queen's Theatre should not miss the opportunity to watch a batch of performers such as they are not likely to see for a long time to come, as the Show is definitely booked to leave Hongkong in the Empress of Japan on Friday next, July 7.

In view of the imminent departure of the troupe, there are only six more days, including to-day, in which to see what is acclaimed as the best show ever seen in the Colony.

During their stay here, the performers will put on three different shows. The entire programme will be changed on each occasion and not a single item will be repeated.

To-day and to-morrow, the programme will be "Broadway Vanities," on Monday and Tuesday, the programme will be entitled "Marcus Follies of 1939," and Wednesday and Thursday will see the final showings entitled "La vie Parisienne."

Those who witnessed the first two performances are unanimous in their opinion that it would be hard to find another travelling troupe which excels the Marcus Show.

HONGKONG, JULY 1, 1939

LORD HALIFAX SPEAKS OUT

SELDOM has a British diplomat resorted to such plain speaking as that which marked the address on Britain's foreign policy, by Viscount Halifax before the Royal Institute of International Affairs. In vigorous and unmistakable terms and "boldly and with such boldness of speech as I can command," H.M. Foreign Secretary discussed in detail various international issues raised as challenges by the totalitarian states. British policy, he made it very clear, rests on twin foundations of purpose, a determination to resist force and a recognition of the world's desire to get on with constructive work in building up peace. To-day, he asserted, the threat of military force is holding the world to ransom and, therefore, the immediate task for Great Britain is to resist aggression and to fulfil her pledges with her whole strength.

AFTER CALLING attention to the commitments into which H.M. Government had entered during the past year, Lord Halifax said that Britain was preparing to assume more obligations with a full understanding of their causes and their consequences. Such great changes could not have been brought about had they not been backed by a deep conviction on the part of the British people.

DRAWING ATTENTION to the campaign of mischievous misrepresentation of Britain's actions and her motives, which, he said, were resented by the British people and which did not pass unnoticed, the speaker referred to the Far Eastern situation when he added,

"Nor do provocative insults to our fellow-countrymen further aid 'pass unnoticed'. I can say at once that we are not prepared to yield either to calumnies or force. Every insult offered to our people, every rule of conduct to which we value and are determined to defend only unites us and increases our determination and strengthens our loyalty to those others who share our feelings and aspirations. Over a large part of the world old standards of conduct and of ordinary human decency which man had laboriously built up are being set aside; things are being done to-day which we can hardly read without amazement, so alien are they to our conception of how men should deal with their fellow-men. Rules of conduct between nations are over-ridden by the same callous indifference as rules of conduct between man and man."

LORD HALIFAX denied that there are any attempt to isolate Germany or to encircle that country. The real facts are very simple. Everybody knows them: Germany is isolating herself and doing it most successfully and completely and, such being the case, she is inviting criticism for her failure to co-operate with other nations and on account of her policy of racialism. There is, as the Foreign Secretary rightly pointed out, ample scope for extending to all nations an opportunity of larger economic life with all that is meant in the term "Lebensraum." If the world were organized on co-operative lines, neither Germany nor Italy need fear for their own safety as no society of nations can be built upon force in a world which lives in fear of violence and has to spend its substance in preparing to resist it. It is idle to cry "Peace" where there is no peace or to pretend to reach a settlement unless it can be guaranteed by a reduction of warlike preparations and by assured recognition of the right of each

Hello & Goodbye

(BY A. W. HYER)

More information is coming down from North China, regarding the "much discussed" Russian-Chinese Air route which will follow the old "Silk" route used in the time of the Tang Dynasty, and which took half a year to cover.

The present plans call for an air mail and passenger service between Russia and China. It will be shared. From Chungking the route goes to Hanoi, where a transfer of planes takes place, and then on to Urumchi and Almaty.

This city, Almaty, only a few years ago was practically a "jumping-off" place, quite obscure and only sporadically inhabited by nomad Mahomedans. However, the Soviet has made it into a busy town and centre of aviation.

Imperial Airways:

ON THURSDAY, at 5.45 p.m., Captain Joe Davies deposited an additional airplane, the "Dardanus," for Imperial Airways' service, at Kai Tak.

Mr. E. J. Burn came flying up from Singapore. The Government Inspector for Aircraft left the Colony several weeks ago, but his attention is needed regarding Imperial Airways' transports which have been having their "ups and downs" in the past month.

Mr. C. C. Cribb and a Mr. Ridge-well are Imperial Airways' engineers and they have come to inspect the ground-work of their company's airplanes.

Bangkok Bound:

CAPTAIN A. B. DYKES and Captain J. N. Wilson went dashing down to Bangkok, in the "Delphinus" and "Dorado," respectively, on Friday at 7 and 7.30 a.m.

Mr. Norman Lee, flying photographer, reporter for "Life" magazine continued on his journey round the world by air. In the southern capital he catches a K.L.M. plane for Europe.

Mr. J. D. Greenway, Commercial Counsellor attached to the British Embassy, China, held a ticket for London. However, he is planning several stops along the Empire route of Imperial Airways.

Mr. E. K. Holtzworth, Imperial Airways' inspection engineer went to Bangkok to see the ground work of his planes in the southern city.

Pan American Airways

THURSDAY, 8.40 a.m. the China Clipper was away for San Francisco, via Manila. Business-tripping to Manila was Mr. H. H. Priestly, of China Air-motive Co.

And Mr. Ko Fook-sing, of Hong-kong commenced a world inspection. He will fly to San Francisco, take a look at the United States and Canada, then across the Atlantic by air. Europe will hold his attention, for several weeks and possibly he will fly back to Hong-kong through India. This gentleman's main interest on the journey will be banks and all the ways and means of the business.

Mr. Jose L. Maten is another business traveller, his destination is Manila.

President Cleveland

MID-NIGHT on Thursday the American President Line's President Cleveland left Hongkong for America, via Shanghai and Japan.

Mr. Y. C. Chang and Mr. S. C. Tong, executives of the Central Trust Company of China, departed for Shanghai. Their farewell was crowded with friends and relations all down at the shipside to give them a loud and gay bon voyage.

Sailing to Shanghai was Mr. F. Altenburg, Consul-General in Canton. Unfortunately, we could not locate this traveller early in the evening for a few stories on the Chinese city.

M. H. Cosme, French Ambassador to China, sailed on his way to Shanghai. When this distinguished, small gentleman arrived in the Colony on Wednesday by Air France direct from Paris, he had little to say regarding present af-nation to enjoy freely its own independence.

IT WAS A LITTLE unfortunate that the Foreign Secretary failed to deal more explicitly with the position of Great Britain in the Far East as such a declaration would have been more than welcome in this part of the world but there is every reason to believe that London is not closing her eyes out here and that she intends, come what may, to uphold her legal rights and to refuse to yield to force. The tail of the lion cannot be pulled too often or too long.

fairs in Europe or China. All very hush, hush!

Mr. Hewlett Smith, of General Motors, Dr. O. C. Lockhart and Mr. and Mrs. H. McNeary, of Shanghai, all held tickets to the Northern "big town" but they were not about the President Cleveland the evening of sailing. Hope they did not miss their boat!

Empress of Japan

FRIDAY, 9 a.m. the Empress of Japan lowered her gangway to the waiting public, and there were plenty of them!

Back home from a perfect round the world trip with a stop-over in England returned Mr. J. P. Sherry with his daughter, Miss C. M. Sherry. This executive of the Hongkong Telephone Company is all set to be back at the grindstone!

Arriving from Shanghai were Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McDonald and their two sons. Business and pleasure bring these Northern residents and General Manager of Wm. Hunt and Co., visiting in the Colony.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kadoorie are back in town after a month's visit with the family in Shanghai. No doubt, the latest in summer's fashions from the Northern shops all this little lady's bags.

That grand and charming Shanghai resident, Dr. George Sellett, who acts as attorney and adviser for the China National Aviation Corporation, comes visiting our city again. Now, wonder what he is up to, all his actions usually have interesting stories surrounding them.

Back from the United States and a vacation returned Mrs. T. B. Williams connected through her husband with the local Standard Vacuum Oil Co. "shebang!" All the latest styles, stories and gossip she no doubt rings back to the Colony.

Mr. D. F. Landale, an executive of Jardine, Matheson and Co., returned from Shanghai where he had "advised" to his family who continued on to England, via Canada. Mr. W. Wells-Henderson returned home and was greeted with many friendly handshakes. The gentleman is a member of the firm L. Dunbar and Co.

Two other popular residents who return from happy holidays are Mr. and Mrs. A. Morse, connected with the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation. Well and happy they appeared on their arrival which was made welcome by many gay friends.

"THE GAME OF DARTS" AS PLAYED IN H.K.

A new game has stolen a march on all other games that have, in the past, laid a firm hold on the enthusiasm of the young bloods, the gay blades, and the old iron-sides of the gambling public of Yaumati, Mongkok, and Shumshuipo.

The new game is not Chinatown. Its origin may without difficulty be traced back to the omnipresent "pub" of the English countryside, where the original is yet played with great gusto.

The variant is played day and night, and with even greater gusto, at several addresses in Yaumati, Mongkok, and Shumshuipo districts. The original is the English game of darts, the delight of the smart fellow who has learned to play it for the price of a mug of ale, but in Hongkong—alas—the game is not played in the traditional manner!

The game as played in Kowloon's overpopulated areas, where even the pride and joy of the family has to seek escape from pressure of relatives and from being trampled upon should he seek to lie lengthwise in the crowded cubicles that serve as homes, has many dissimilar points from the traditional "Game of Darts."

HOW DIFFERENT! One varying point in the local game from the approved English game is the non-existence on the board of the "Bull's Eye" in the centre. And there are even numbers—1 to 20 or 1, 5, 10, 20, and 50—painted on the board. The board is not even circular in shape. It is rectangular, and subdivided into some 100 to 150

TIENTSIN BLOCKADE: BRITISH REACTIONS

OPPOSITION PRESS URGES ORGANIZED MOVE AGAINST FURTHER JAPANESE ACTION

BY JACK CHEN

LONDON, June 19—Events in Tientsin and other anti-British activities of the Japanese are front page news in the British press. All sections of opinion realise that these actions are intended by the Japanese to lead to complete exclusion of British and all other foreign interests from China... except on Japan's terms. The Tientsin blockade is regarded as a test case.

Newspapers close to the Government urge the Japanese to "localise" their demands and not push the matter further than a settlement of the case of the four Chinese arrested on suspicion of terrorist activities.

They emphasise that the British proposals for a neutral committee of enquiry are still open. There is not much hope, however, that the Japanese will heed this advice except under considerable diplomatic or economic pressure backed up by a convincing show of force.

The question is: Is Britain prepared to apply that pressure? Can she mobilise her "potential democratic allies" in a common policy of defence of their mutual interests?

OPPOSITION VIEWS:

The Opposition (Liberal and Labour) press point out that present events are the logical outcome of the "Appeasement Policy" followed by the National Government ever since the Japanese invasion of Manchuria in 1931. They insist that a stand must now be organised against further Japanese attacks on British and other foreign interests.

"Scrutator" in the Conservative "Sunday Times" writes that heavy risks will be run if Britain resorts to sanctions in protection of her rights, that "war with Japan would be, indeed, a serious risk with Europe in its present unsettled state," and warns against the "mistake of underestimating the power of the Japanese Navy and the strategic influence that it might have in a great war."

But he concludes that "even so, the risks, whatever they are, would have to be met in preference to the extinction in favour of Japan of our political and commercial rights in the Far East."

Economic sanctions, "a raid on the Yen," tariff discrimination, or an embargo on Japanese goods... these are some of the measures being discussed as reprisals should the Japanese force the wider issues of British and foreign rights that they have raised in Tientsin.

Prominence is given to the Anglo-French staff talks in Singapore. And the U. S. A. is understood to be prepared to undertake "parallel action" though to what degree is unknown.

CLOSE CONTACT:

Mr. Chamberlain announced in the House that he was maintaining "close contact with the French and American Governments." It is significant that he made no mention of possible collaboration with the Soviet Union in Eastern affairs although a recent "Pravda" editorial suggested the necessity for democratic collaboration with the U. S. S. R. to stabilise peace in the East.

Moscow newspapers express the hope that the new storm in the East will impress Mr. Chamberlain with the need for a determinedly organised Peace Bloc. They stress the fact, as does the whole British press, that Japan's actions are aimed as part of the campaign of the Fascist powers against Britain and the Democracies.

AN EFFECTIVE "NO":

It is certain that Britain will not be stampeded into "collaboration" with Japan to construct a New Order in the East. She will not sever relations with the Chinese Government, nor recognise the Japanese blockade of China. She is strong thus far to maintain her position in the East.

With the help of France, the U. S. A. and the U. S. S. R. though aid can be mobilised (though not immediately or without giving a determined lead) Britain can say a very effective "No" to further Japanese attacks on peace in Asia.

It is unfortunate however that the Chamberlain Government does not as yet seem anxious to give such a lead.

The long delayed and protracted Anglo-Soviet negotiations strongly indicate this, and it is the cause of much critical impatience on the part of the Opposition parties, the Young Conservatives and Mr. Churchill's group.

NEW CRISIS NEAR:

A new crisis may arise in Europe at any moment. August is now rumoured to be the month of the next "Big Push" by Nazi Germany. Thus, the British Government is chary of sending increased military forces to the Far East to back up its rights and damaged prestige.

It would apparently welcome a compromise agreement with Japan (if the latter did not drive too hard a bargain) as a temporary settlement of the present dangerous situation while preparations are pushed ahead for the final showdown.

Chang Yuch, puppet magistrate of Kiangsu in Kiangsu, was killed by Chinese guerrillas recently, states a Shanghai report.

a conviction recorded for the offence in the Central Court recently) are open to players day and night, and the steady stream of visitors would suggest a thriving business.

Unhappily and unhurried stroll yesterday, conducted by a staff representative of the "Hongkong Daily Press" through the three districts, found three such "dart and cigarette" shops in Yaumati district, and four each in Mongkok district and Shumshuipo.

BRITAIN NOT PREPARED TO YIELD TO CALUMNIES OR FORCE

Lord Halifax Reaffirms Resolve To Fulfil Pledge To Resist Aggression

LONDON, June 30 (Reuter).—In the event of further aggression, we are resolved to use at once the whole of our strength in fulfilment of our pledges to resist it," said Lord Halifax, the British Foreign Secretary, when he spoke at Chatham House yesterday before the Royal Institute, on international affairs.

Lord Halifax continued: "We read of mischievous misrepresentations of our actions and our motives, which the people in countries holding a different international philosophy think fit to make."

"We read them with resentment, knowing that they are false, and knowing that those who make them know it too. These things do not pass unnoticed here nor do the provocative insults offered to our countrymen further afield."

"I say that Britain is not prepared to yield either to calumnies or force. Every insult offered to our people and every ridicule made to what we value and are determined to defend, unless it increases our determination and strengthens our loyalty to those others who share our feelings and aspirations."

RULES OF CONDUCT

"Over a large part of the world, the old standards of conduct and ordinary human decency are being set aside. Things are being done which we can hardly read without amazement, so alien are they to our conception of how men should deal with their fellow men."

"The rules of conduct between nations are being over-ridden with the same callous indifference as the rules of conduct between man and man."

"At a time when our aims have been constantly misrepresented, it is well to restate them boldly and with plainness of speech."

FIRST RESOLVE

"Our first resolve is to stop aggression and for that reason—and that reason alone—we have joined with other nations to meet a common danger. These arrangements have no other purpose than defence. They mean what they say—no more, no less."

"But they have been denounced as aiming at isolation, or, as it is called, the encirclement of Germany and Italy and as being designed to prevent them from acquiring the living space necessary for their national existence."

"What are the facts? Germany is isolating herself successfully and completely, economically by her policy of autarky, politically by a policy that causes constant anxiety to other nations and culturally by her policy of racialism."

INEVITABLE CONSEQUENCE

"If you deliberately isolate yourself, you can blame nobody, but yourself, and as long as this isolation continues, the inevitable consequences of it are bound to become stronger and more marked."

"The last thing we desire is to see an individual—man, woman or child—suffering privations, but if they do, the fault lies not with us and it depends upon the German Government—and the German Government alone—whether this process of isolation continues or not, for any day it can be ended by a policy of co-operation."

LEBENSRAUM

Referring to the "Lebensraum" Lord Halifax declared that this policy could not be solved simply by acquiring more territory, but could only be solved by the wise ordering of the affairs of the country at home and by adjusting and improving its relations with other countries abroad.

"Nations expanded their wealth and raised their standard of living by gaining the confidence of their neighbours, thus facilitating the flow of goods between them."

"The very opposite was likely to be the consequence of action by one nation in the suppression of the independent existence of her smaller and weak neighbours and if 'Lebensraum' is to be applied in that sense, we reject it," declared Lord Halifax.

NOT OVER-POPULATED

"It is noteworthy that this claim to living space is being put forward at a moment when Germany has become an immigration country, importing workers in large numbers from Czechoslovakia, Holland and Italy to meet the needs of her industry and agriculture."

"How then, can Germany claim to be over-populated? Belgium, Holland and, to a less extent, our own islands, have already proved that what is called over-population can be prevented by productive work. Economically, the world is far too closely knit together for any one country to hope to profit for itself at the expense of her neighbours and no more than any other country can Germany hope to solve her economic problems in isolation."

"Through co-operation—and we, for our part, are ready to co-operate—there is ample scope for extending to all nations the opportunity of a larger economic life, with all that this means and implied in the term 'Lebensraum'."

FEAR AND VIOLENCE

"If the world were organized on such lines, neither Germany nor Italy need fear for their own safety, but no such society of nations can be built upon force in which lives fear and violence and has to spend its substance in organizing to resist it."

"It is idle to cry for peace, when there is no peace or to pretend to reach a settlement, unless it can be guaranteed by a reduction of the warlike preparations and by the assured recognition of every nation's rights to a free enjoyment of its independence."

"At this moment the doctrine of force bars the way to a settlement and fills the world with envy, hatred, malice and uncharitableness."

"But if the doctrine of force were once abandoned, so that the fear of war which stalks the world was lifted, all outstanding questions would become easier to solve and the nations would then be in a position to discuss, with a real promise of success, both political grievances and economic difficulties, whether in the international or colonial field."

COLONIAL PROBLEM

"Whatever may be the difficulties of the colonial problem, or any other, I would not despair of finding ways of settlement, once everybody has got the will to settle."

"But unless all countries do indeed desire a settlement, discussions would only do more harm than good. It is, moreover, impossible to negotiate with a government whose responsible spokesmen brand a friendly country as thieves and blackmailers, and indulge daily in monstrous slanders on British policy in all parts of the world."

"But if that spirit, which is clearly incompatible with any desire for a peaceful settlement, gave way to something different, His Majesty's Government would be ready to pool their best thought with others in order to end the present state of political and economic insecurity."

"If we could get so far, what an immense stride the world would have made."

Atmosphere Of Confidence

"We should have arrested the anxiety which is cramping and arresting business, expansion, and we should have brought back an atmosphere of confidence among the nations."

"Our next task would be the reconstruction of international order on a broader and firmer foundation."

After a reference to the League of Nations and the Covenant, Viscount Halifax continued: "It is not enough to devise measures for preventing the use of force to change the status quo unless there is also the machinery for bringing about the peaceful change."

S'PORE DEFENCE TALKS NOT TO BE DISCLOSED

LONDON, June 30 (Reuter).—In the House of Commons yesterday, the Prime Minister, replying to Mr. Arthur Henderson (Lab.), declined to disclose the details of the defence discussions in Singapore, which, he said, had been satisfactorily concluded.

Asked if arrangements had been made for very full and possible co-operation between the British and French forces in the Far East, Mr. Chamberlain said that that was one of the objects of the discussions.

"To-day, when European nations are forgetful of their common civilisation, and are arming to the teeth, it is more important than ever before that we should remind ourselves of the essential unity of European civilisation."

"Truly, Europe is divided against itself."

Foreign Policy

"Our foreign policy must, therefore, constantly bear in mind the immediate present, and the more distant future."

"British policy rests on twin foundations. One is the determination to resist force, the other our recognition of the world's desire to get on with the constructive work of building peace."

"But to-day the threat of military force is holding the world to ransom, and our immediate task is to resist aggression."

"I would emphasise that with all the strength at my command, so that no one may misunderstand me."

More Substantial Basis

"And if we are ever to succeed in removing misunderstanding and reaching a settlement which the world can trust, it must be upon some basis more substantial than verbal undertakings."

"It has been said that deeds, not words are necessary. That is also our view. There must be give and take in a practical form on both sides, for there can be no firm bargains on a basis of giving something concrete in return for mere assurances."

Full Understanding

Earlier, Lord Halifax had referred to the agreements with Poland, Turkey, Greece and Rumania, and expressed the hope that negotiations with Russia would very shortly come to a successful issue.

He added: "We assumed these obligations with a full understanding of their causes and consequences. We know that if the security and independence of other countries disappear, our own security and our own independence will be gravely threatened."

"We know that if international law and order is to be preserved, we must be prepared to fight in its defence."

"With every week that passes our re-armament effort gains momentum, and on every side of life, political, administrative and industrial we have abundant evidence of how firmly this national effort is driven and supported by the people's will."

"Behind all this military effort stands the British people, more united than ever, and at their service, wealth and industrial resources."

Labour Comment

Viscount Halifax was followed by Mr. A. V. Alexander (Labour) who said he thought it was a pity that the policy outlined by Viscount Halifax was not firmly pressed at Stresa, or even at Berchtesgaden.

It was encouraging that Ministers of the democratic countries who last September felt no moral responsibility for the defence of a European country against wanton aggression, now advocate a peace bloc, with the belief that justice, liberty and peace could only be maintained if we were prepared to defend international law and order."

And on that they can rest assured of the soundness in heart of the common people of this country."

FRENCH REACTIONS

PARIS, June 30 (Reuter).—"Lord Halifax's words are in keeping with the seriousness of the situation," writes "Figaro."

"According to information received in London," the paper continues, "Germany intends to attempt a preliminary put-up in Danzig within a few days, followed, towards the end of August, by

AMERICA TO ARM

Recommendations By Chief Of Staff

NEW YORK, June 30 (Trans-ocean).—Immediate measures to increase America's armed strength are demanded by the retiring chief of the American General Staff, General Malin Craig, in a report to the War Department.

General Craig recommended an increase of the army to a total strength of 2,430,000 men and the provision of adequate modern equipment for the immediate arming of one million men in the event of war.

He also advised the creation and training of elite divisions, whose task it would be to oppose with lightning-like rapidity any assault on the western hemisphere. These divisions would be given the task of defending American naval and air-bases within the zone of American interests.

The General also recommended the immediate military development of Alaska, Hawaii, the Panama Canal Zone and Porto Rico.

Defence Or Surrender Is Powers' Alternative

DR. WANG CHUNG-HUI DEFINES JAPANESE THREAT TO INTERESTS

CHUNGKING, June 30 (Central).—The question confronting the Western Powers is whether they should maintain or relinquish their interests acquired by treaties in China in the face of Japanese encroachment, declared Dr. Wang Chung-hui, Minister of Foreign Affairs, in the course of a broadcast to Europe from Chungking yesterday.

Dr. Wang said that in order to deprive the Western Powers of their interests in China and to fulfil her ambition of dominating East Asia, Japan has instigated an anti-foreign movement in the "occupied" areas. While the movement is now directed principally against Britain, it aims at alienating the Powers from each other and crushing them one by one.

Japan's policy of dominating the Asiatic Continent, Dr. Wang pointed out, is deep-rooted. It is clearly expounded in the Tanaka Memorial and other Japanese diplomatic documents. The creation of a so-called "new order in East Asia" is nothing but an attempt to eliminate the interests of foreign Powers.

The Japanese militarists have already started their southward offensive. They have occupied Hainan Island and the Spratly Islands as bases for a further advance. As a result, the colonies of Britain, France, the Netherlands and the United States in the Pacific are threatened. Pressure is even being exerted upon foreign concessions in China with the intention of seizing them.

Japan's recent announcement of the blockade of the entire China coast only imposes restrictions on the legitimate trade of third Powers in China. Since its closure about a year ago, there has been no sign of re-opening the Yangtze River, Dr. Wang pointed out.

It should therefore be fully realized by the Western Powers that Japan's aggression in China is also directed against them, Dr. Wang stated. It is the established policy of aggression of the Japanese militarists to make bolder and bolder advances and not to tolerate the existence of interests of third Powers acquired by treaties in China. This has been fully confirmed by past events.

Compromise with Japan is impossible. Any such attempt will not only fail to avert the Far Eastern crisis but will only encourage Tokyo to make further demand, Dr. Wang concluded.

TIENTSIN PARLEYS

NEGOTIATIONS WILL START ON JULY 6: JAPANESE ARMY'S UNCOMPROMISING ATTITUDE

TOKYO, June 30 (Reuter).—The parleys in regard to Tientsin are expected to open about July 6.

Japanese newspapers report that the Japanese Consul, Mr. Tanaka, the Japanese military representative and the British Vice-Consul, Mr. Herbert, from Tientsin, will negotiate "on the spot" Tientsin issues in Tokyo, while Sir Robert Craigie, the British Ambassador in Tokyo, and Mr. Setomatsu Kato, representing Mr. Arita, the Japanese Foreign Minister, will simultaneously take up "the basis of the Chinese issues which have markedly affected Anglo-Japanese relations, thereby leading up to the Tientsin imbroglio."

Japanese Army's Determination In this connexion, the "Asahi Shimbun" asserts that the Japanese Army "is determined to secure Britain's abandonment of her belated liberality against Japan, based on the re-orientation of Britain's basic policy of its sure and concrete enforcement in the whole of North China."

ROME, June 30 (Reuter).—"Pontifical lack of any constructive proposals," is "Piccolo's" opinion of Lord Halifax's speech a good summary of which is printed in this morning's papers.

"The 'Popolo di Roma' says that the speech was bitter and threatening and lacking in diplomatic form, as that pronounced the day before by Mr. Winston Churchill."

John Bull failed to realise that phibocratic Britain is undergoing the inevitable decline.

BRITISH BLUEJACKETS LANDED AT FOOCHOW 36 JAPANESE WARSHIP OFF TREATY PORT

AMERICAN PROPERTY BURNT DOWN DURING AIR RAID

SHANGHAI, June 30 (Reuter).—An undetermined number of British bluejackets, reported at 36, landed at the British Consulate in Foochow from H.M. Grasshopper to protect British life and property.

The Grasshopper was specially ordered to Foochow from the Yangtze Delta because of its ability to sit up the shallow Min River on which Foochow stands.

Twenty-six Japanese warships are now stated to be concentrated off Foochow.

SHANGHAI, June 30 (Reuter).—The property of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, situated on the outskirts of Foochow, was hit by three bombs, including one incendiary, during a Japanese air raid yesterday, and was burnt down to the ground, but there were no casualties.

Japanese planes bombed the outlying villages later, but concentrated their attack on the outskirts of Foochow.

JAPANESE LANDING FOOCHOW, June 30 (Central).—A Japanese landing on Ping-tam, an island off the coast of Futsing in Fukien early yesterday morning was repulsed.

Under a barrage from four warships a Japanese Landing Party effected a landing. The Chinese set up stiff resistance. After several hours' fighting, they were driven back to their warships, leaving a number of dead on the shore.

About 100 Chinese fishermen were captured by the Japanese and taken aboard their war vessels.

Twelve more Japanese warships arrived off the Foochow coast yesterday, making a total of twenty-six. Japanese naval planes continued their aerial bombardment of Fukien coastal towns during the day. Six of them raided Foochow, dropping bombs outside the west gate.

READY FOR SIEGE SHANGHAI, June 30 (Int'l).—Foochow is ready for siege in view of the Japanese advance from the Pagoda Anchorage about 25 miles from the city on the Min River.

Military circles here are of the opinion that the Japanese advance along this river is full of hazards, as only steam launches can navigate the river and are subject to attacks from the Chinese gunboats.

Japanese destroyers are used to steam up beyond Mampou, the mountainous terrain of that shelling from Mampou to chow will be ineffective.

Foochow is being heavily bombed to-day by Japanese planes and evacuation was completed by this afternoon.

REPORT CONFIRMED The naval authorities yesterday confirmed the report that, at request of the British Consulate, a number of bluejackets were landed to protect the British Consulate at Foochow.

The bluejackets were H.M.S. "Grasshopper," which been ordered to Foochow on the Yangtze.

CATHOLIC NEWS & NOTES

FEAST OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD: LAST PAPAL BATTLESHIP: ACADEMY PORTRAITS: TUSSAUD ANNIVERSARY

To-morrow, the first Sunday of July, the Feast of the Precious Blood will be celebrated at Shamshing-church, adjoining the Hospital whose name is associated with this feast. The Congregation of Chinese Sisters, who have this Children's Hospital under their devoted care, is the Congregation of the Precious Blood. The Bishop will attend the church for the feast and will confer the Sacrament of Confirmation in the morning.

The association of the shedding of Christ's Blood with the work of the Redemption has led to the use of the name in connection with many forms of apostolic work. There are several Congregations of priests and nuns and numerous Associations of lay people bearing the name, and for some centuries there was an Order of Knighthood called the Knights of the Precious Blood. The Dukes of Mantua were the grand-masters, and it was dissolved when the Emperor Joseph I abdicated the dukedom.

The Feast of the Precious Blood was established by Pope Pius IX in exceptional circumstances. A Congregation of priests of the most Precious Blood had been founded on the desire of Pius VII when he returned to Rome after his exile under Napoleon. The Congregation flourished greatly and within fifty years had many houses in Italy and Germany.

When trouble broke out in Italy with the seizure of the Papal States, many of these houses were confiscated and some destroyed, and the Superior-General, who was a personal friend of the Pope, accompanied him into exile when the Pope had to leave Rome. He suggested to the Pope that he should promise to establish a feast of the Precious Blood if he were able to return to Rome, but the Pope did not wish to make a spiritual bargain of this kind and instead he established the feast at once.

Last Papal Battleship

The present activity in naval building in England has led a writer on naval matters to recall that the last Papal battleship was built in England, and was in fact launched on the Thames just eighty years ago. It is not generally realised that there was once such a thing as a Papal navy. When the States of the Church formed a state of some European importance they had a navy as well as an army, and the Pope's ships covered themselves with honour in the battle of Lepanto. In the last century, however, all that was needed by the Papal States was a ship for the protection of the fisheries.

The Immacolata Concezione, as the last battleship was named, was launched at Blackwell in 1859 in the presence of Cardinal Wiseman and many other distinguished Catholics. It was a full-rigged auxiliary ship mounted with eight 18-pounder brass cannon. After 1870, when it was no longer needed, the Pope gave the ship to a Dominican fishery school in France as a training-ship for their boys, but it proved too expensive to maintain and it had to be sold. It was disposed of to an English firm and later it passed into the hands of French owners. After very varied uses it was finally lost in the Mediterranean as recently as 1905.

Academy Portraits

A portrait of Hilaire Belloc by James Ginn was hung in this year's Academy. It shows Belloc's advancing years, for he has aged considerably within the past few years, and it suggests contrast with his portrait in the "Conversation Piece" by the same artist which has one of the pictures of the year in the Academy a few years ago. The others in that picture were G. K. Chesterton and Maurice Baring, a trio of close friends and the three greatest Catholic writers of their day.

Maurice Baring, the least known of the three to the general public, is one of the best living writers of English and has a long list of novels, plays, and volumes of reminiscences and of poems to his name. He is also an artist, a pianist, and a composer, and a linguist of exceptional ability. He has had a remarkable career, first in the diplomatic service, then as a newspaper correspondent in many strange countries, and in the air force during the war.

Another Catholic writer whose portrait hangs in this year's Academy is Wilfrid Meynell, the Grand Old Man of Catholic journalism. Many who know of him as the instigator of Alice

Tussaud Anniversary

Another elderly Catholic writer, better known however in a different capacity, has come recently into the news: Mr. John Tussaud, who with Mrs. Tussaud has just celebrated his golden wedding. Mr. Tussaud is the great-grandson of the original founder of the waxworks, and he has been engaged in modelling figures since he was fourteen years of age. His work has fully maintained the high standard set in the exhibition, and his portrait figures have many times been exhibited in the Royal Academy. He has modelled more than 1000 figures for the exhibition in the course of his lifetime. He is now eighty years of age. He has written many books, mostly dealing with French history of the last two centuries; and he has also written the history of the waxworks under the title of "The Romance of Madame Tussaud's."

Mrs. Tussaud also comes of an artistic family, for her father was a stained-glass and mosaic artist. She is a needlewoman of exceptional ability and her work has often been exhibited. On one occasion she sent a piece silk embroidered depicting poppies to an exhibition, and found it displayed as a water-colour painting.

LESSON SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONGKONG

SUBJECT—GOD
The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science churches to-morrow July 2 will be "God."

The Golden Text will be:—"Unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever." (1. Timothy 1: 17).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible:—"Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, 'Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, To The Unknown God. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.'" (Acts 17: 22-25; Ps. 107: 20).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:—"Paganism and Agnosticism may define Deity as 'the great unknownable'; but Christian Science brings God much nearer to man, and makes Him better known as the All-in-all, forever near. Paul saw in Athens an altar dedicated 'to the unknown God.' Referring to it, he said to the Athenians: 'Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, Him declare I unto you.'" (Act XVII; 23).

God is individual, incorporeal. He is divine Principle, Love, the universal cause, the only creator, and there is no other self-existence. He is all-inclusive, and is reflected by all that is real and eternal and by nothing else. Truth does the work, and you must both understand and abide by the divine Principle of your demonstration." (Ps. 596, 331, 456).

WITHDRAWAL OF DEPOSITS FROM CHINESE BANKS

Emergency Measure Is Temporary

CHUNGKING June 30 (Int'l).—The present restrictions upon withdrawal of deposits from Chinese banks at Shanghai aimed primarily at stabilizing the currency situation there, were intended as an emergency measure of a temporary character, said a spokesman of the Finance Ministry in clarifying the order issued last week.

Expressing the hope that the situation at Shanghai would soon return to normal, the spokesman said that the measure decreed on June 21 would be withdrawn as soon as conditions warranting its continuance were removed.

For this reason, he added, it was made clear in the ministerial order telegraphed to Shanghai that the restrictions on withdrawals were intended as a measure of a temporary character.

As regards the currency measures decreed on August 15, 1937, the spokesman said that the Ministry of Finance had issued a circular order ordering it clear that these measures still remained in force.

Japanese Exports To U.S. Dwindle

SHANGHAI, June 30 (Int'l).—With several polls of public opinion consistently showing that the majority of Americans are sympathetic with China, the general consumption of Japanese goods in the United States has dwindled notably, according to a New York dispatch.

For example, the Japanese exports to the United States in 1938 amounted to only U.S. $123,447,000, as compared with U.S. $207,900,000 during 1937.

Simultaneously the United States exports to Japan suffered, though to a lesser degree. For example, they totalled U.S. $258,580,000 in 1938, as compared with U.S. $304,826,000 in 1937.

U.S. & FOREIGN SILVER PRICE

Serious Monetary Problem

WASHINGTON, June 30 (Reuters).—Mr. Morgenthau, U.S. Secretary for the Treasury, said at a press conference, that the Treasury would continue to adjust its foreign silver price to the London market with a view to preventing dumping by foreign sellers and buying abroad.

However, whether it would be continued beyond midnight to-night, would depend on the action of the Congress on the Monetary Bill.

He also said that if the proposed higher domestic price was enacted, it might be possible that American sellers would be subject to a 50 per cent tax on silver profits which was formerly applicable only to speculators in foreign silver.

Serious Situation. He expressed the opinion that the possible lapsing of the Stabilization Fund and the devaluation authority this time presents a serious situation, particularly in view of the international developments and might also endanger the tripartite agreement.

Mr. Morgenthau conceded that the Treasury would still have certain powers to act in the Foreign Exchange markets if the emergency powers lapse, but with divided authority between the Treasury and the New York Federal Bank, he was not certain just how successful such intervention might be.

He said he did not know what to do in respect of silver if the monetary legislation was not enacted by to-night.

Decision on July 5. The Treasury's silver operations would then likely be conducted under the Silver Purchase Act, but it was possible that no decision would be made until July 5, since the Treasury never purchased silver on Saturdays and the Government Offices were closed on Monday and Tuesday.

It is understood that the administration has informed the Congressional leaders that it would prefer to allow the monetary controls expiring on June 30 to lapse and then to seek re-enactment rather than accept an extension of the dollar.

H. K. STOCK EXCHANGE

The market closes for the first half of 1939, firm at slightly lower rates than those recorded at the beginning of the year. Buyers have been content to let the market find its own level. Any shares that have been offered being absorbed without difficulty. With all local companies doing record business, this market is due for a boom with any improvement in political conditions.

HONGKONG MINES LIMITED

Working Profit Of Over $75,000

A working profit for the year of over $75,000 was announced by Mr. L. R. Nielson, who presided at the annual meeting of Hongkong Mines Ltd., which was held yesterday at 11 a.m.

The following were present: Mr. L. R. Nielson, Chairman, Messrs. B. B. Bassett, H. Hong Sling, J. M. Wong, V. E. Duclos, F. L. Lam, Wong Kit-wan, B. O. Andersen and F. W. Kendall.

Chairman's Speech

In moving the adoption of the report and accounts for the year 1938, the Chairman said:

"Before formally proposing the adoption of such Report and accounts I will give you a resume of the activities of the Company. As you will note from the Balance Sheet, a working profit of over $75,000—was made.

"In view of the fact, however, that no depreciation was written off last year, we considered it advisable to write off the percentage customary in mining. In this case, amounting to nearly half a million dollars. We feel, however, that you will consider this good practice, and shows accurately the correct position of the Company, although it inevitably entails a nett loss on the year's results.

Exceedingly Fortunate

"As will be readily appreciated, we have been exceedingly unfortunate, in going through a protracted period in which the price of lead has been exceptionally below average. To-day's price is approximately £14 1/2 whereas the average for the past 20 years is £23-5-0d.

"We can only hope that the price will improve in the near future.

Although we have been in operation for over a year and a half, our ore reserves remain approximately about the same as when we first commenced operation. "With these remarks I now formally propose the adoption of the report and accounts as presented, and after they have been seconded I shall be pleased to answer any question on such statements."

The motion was put to the meeting and carried.

RURAL CREDIT
CO-OPERATIVESFarmers' Bank Loans
Seventy Millions

CHUNGKING, June 30 (Central)

Loans distributed by the Farmers' Bank of China in rural districts over 14 provinces up to the end of 1938 amounted to $77-686,082, of which $47,922,100 were still outstanding. It was announced to-day.

The 14 provinces in which the loans were distributed were:
Hupei, Anhwei, Hunan, Kiangsi,
Fukien, Kwangtung, Honan,
Szechwan, Shansi, Kansu, Kweichow, Kiangsu, Chekiang and Shansi.

For six successive years, the Bank has been pioneering in the field of credit co-operatives in the rural districts. In Hupei, Honan, Anhwei, Shensi, Kansu, Szechwan and Kweichow
it initiated the co-operative movement by organising the first preparatory co-operative societies.

The Bank intensified its work on the development of co-operative banks throughout last year.
More loans were given to enable them to expand the scope of their work. Preparations were also to extend loans to various rural districts in Sinkiang, Ninghsia, Chinghai, Yunnan, Sikang and Kwangsi.

The Bank has given loans to Government-owned as well as private farms in Kiangsi, Hupei and Shensi provinces. A $1,000-000 loan contract was signed recently with the Yunnan Provincial Government for this purpose.

As a result of the activities of the Bank, a total of 28,781 societies has been established in 14 provinces. Of the total amount of $56,252,338.37 distributed among these societies, $27,481,133.48 has already been refunded.

CHINA LOANS
DEFAULTSheer Inability
To Pay

LONDON, June 30 (Reuter)—

The announcement of a default in the Reorganization Loan and the 6 per cent 1934 loan, did not come altogether as a surprise, says the "Financial Times".

It is recognized that the revenue on which service on these issues were secured have fallen into Japanese hands.

Anticipation of the suspension of payments was reflected in the drop in the quotation of the 1934 Loan by over 16 points in the past month.

Heavy Losses

The Chinese Government, whose treatment of its creditors has been exemplary in the past, has been forced to default by sheer inability to pay and it is difficult to foresee that any arrangements are likely to provide for continued payments in view of the loss of the greater part of the customs and salt revenue to the Japanese and the recent exchange crisis.

BANK OF FRANCE
GOLD

PARIS, June 29 (Reuter)—The returns of the Bank of France for the week ended June 14, show gold reserves totalling 92,288,000,000 Francs, of gold content of 27.5 mil-ligrammes, indicating no change as compared with the preceding week.

The total note circulation is given as 119,837,000 Francs, showing a decrease of 328,000,000
Francs, as compared with the week ended June 14.

U.S. MONETARY
BILL PROVISIONS

NEW YORK, June 30 (Reuter)—
The administration is reported to have informed the leaders of Congress that it is prepared to allow the provisions of the Monetary Bill to lapse rather than seek an immediate extension.

The report adds that the administration would then endeavor to have the provisions relating to the Stabilization Fund re-enacted, but would forego the power which the President now enjoys to devalue the dollar by a further nine cents.

MINISTRY OF

SITUATION CHANGES FOR WORSE: GERMAN TROOP MOVEMENTS

WARSAW, June 30 (Reuter)—Ammunition and men are continuing to reach Danzig from East Prussia, according to the semi-official reports received from Danzig last night.

Sixteen guns were disembarked on Wednesday night in the bay east of Danzig and were taken on board trawlers to Bischofsberg, where the Danzig authorities are feverishly erecting concrete gun emplacements.

Access is prohibited to the hill, which is surrounded by a cordon of police and Storm Troopers and the barracks on the hill have been transformed into an ammunition dump.

Several hundreds of Storm Troopers are reported to have arrived in Danzig on Wednesday night and the Nazis who arrived from East Prussia to form the Frei Korps are being housed in Danzig's pre-war underground fortifications.

Berlin, June 30 (Reuter)—Official quarters here strongly deny that German troops or officials have been introduced into Danzig or that a Frei Korps is being formed.

It is admitted, however, that Danzig is strengthening its peace force within legal limits by employing only Danzig citizens.

PRACTICE GAMES
The Mindanao gang took advantage of the presence of several U.S. warships in port, to stage two practice matches. On Wednesday, they lost to the U.S.S. Pope by 12 runs to 7, after Skipper Cecil Douglas had put in his second stingers when leading by 6-5.

With the help of Dave Leonard,
"Dutch" Lingenbrink and Al, the Mindanao boys took the Tulsa by 8-2, on Thursday afternoon.

In the latter game, Charlie Horton showed without doubt that he is still one of the most valuable players in local ball, by holding the "Tulsa" slingers scoreless for the last 5 innings of the game, conceding only one, scratch hit that could well have been scored as a fielder's error.

Dave Leonard, in the same match, laced out the longest cir-
